Multimedia Appendix 3. Initial text strings based on scores.

Scale/Description	Under 2.00	Over 2.00 to 2.70	Over 2.70
HeiQ3: Self-monitoring and insight	Has doubtful and insufficient insight into and control over their own health condition.	Has limited insight into and control over their own health condition.	Has good insight into and control over their own health condition.
HeiQ4: Constructive attitudes and approaches	and has a non-constructive attitude and approach towards it.	and has a somewhat constructive attitude and approach towards it.	and has a constructive attitude and approach towards it.
HeiQ5: Skill and technique acquisition	Lacks skills and techniques to handle health problems when they arise.	Has inadequate skills and techniques to handle health problems when they arise.	Has sufficient skills and techniques to handle health problems when they arise.
HeiQ8: Emotional distress	(and) experiences a high degree of emotional stress due to their health.	(and) experiences a slight emotional stress due to their health.	(and) experiences no emotional stress due to their health.
HLQ1: Feel understood and supported by healthcare providers	Feels misunderstood or unsupported by their social network.	Feels only partially understood and supported by their social network.	Feels well and adequately understood and supported by their social network.
HLQ4: Social support for health	(but) experiences a lack of understanding and support from the healthcare providers they have contact with.	(but) does not experience sufficient understanding and support from the healthcare providers they have contact with.	(and) experiences good and adequate understanding and support from the healthcare providers they have contact with.
eHLQ2: Understanding of health concepts and language	Lacks understanding of health-related concepts and the health-related language and has limited knowledge of their own health condition.	Has limited understanding of health-related concepts and the health-related language and has limited knowledge of their own health condition.	Has a good understanding of health-related concepts and the health-related language, with good knowledge of their own health condition.
eHLQ1: Using technology to process health information	Has insufficient knowledge of how to use technology to	Has limited knowledge of how to use	Has sufficient knowledge of how to use technology to manage their own health.	technology to manage their own health.	manage their own health.

eHLQ3: Ability to actively engage with digital services	Has poor knowledge of how to use technology to benefit themselves, interact with systems, and find health information relevant to themselves.	Has limited knowledge of how to use technology to benefit themselves, interact with systems, and find health information relevant to themselves.	Has good knowledge of how to use technology to benefit themselves, interact with systems, and find health information relevant to themselves.
eHLQ4: Feel safe and in control	Feels a lack of control over their data and lacks trust in how their data is handled and used by healthcare providers.	Feels limited control over their data and lacks trust in how their data is handled and used by healthcare providers.	Feels they have control over their data and trust how their data is handled and used by healthcare providers.
eHLQ6: Access to digital services that work	Has insufficient access to digital health services that work and can be accessed by herself and others who need them.	Has limited access to digital health services that work and can be accessed by herself and others who need them.	Has sufficient access to digital health services that work and can be accessed by herself and others who need them.
eHLQ7: Digital services that suit individual needs	and she feels that the digital services do not adequately adapt to her needs.	and she feels that the digital services only partially adapt to her needs.	and she feels that the digital services adequately adapt to her needs.
eHLQ5: Motivated to engage with digital services	(and) is not motivated to engage with these services.	(and) is not motivated to engage with these services.	(and) is not motivated to engage with these services.